

PRESS RELEASE

March 04, 2010

The Chilean pork industry inform to the Agricultural Offices that:

Pork meat slaughterhouses do not suffered substantial damages in infrastructure and equipment, what has permitted they continue operating normally.

The principal ports of Chile for exports of pork meat have been evaluated and are working normally.

Consistent with the previous thing, exports activities of pork meat are done according the planned and the commitments made by each company.

Today, all companies, AGROSUPER, COEXCA, FRIOSIA y MAXAGRO, are exporting their products normally.

The inspection done by the Agricultural and Livestock Service, SAG, is operating as regular and normally.